

I'm walking with darkness,
I feel it...
I share to her my swearwords.

I hear voices,
someone is despairing...
many are already shedding tears...
I don't know yet, I'm unaware,
suddenly I just feel a big sense of relief,
something makes feel better the evil one which is in me.

I keep walking in the darkness,
I cannot see but...
I feel something next to me... really... aaaahhh!

A burning smell runs through me,
I see the light,
the heat from the flames welcomes me.
Now I understand, everything is so clear.

Could your tears get burn,
be preys of flames.
Now I understand, everything is so clear.

I just feel a sense of relief, something makes feel the evil one which is in me better because your useless church is burning at last!
Yeeaaaahhhh!!!!!!

Your Church is Burning
